

GENERAL WHITE IN GREAT DANGER

Feared That His Ammunition and Shells Have Given Out.

ENGLAND IS ANXIOUS

Stories of British Victories at Ladysmith Proven to be False.

Boers seem to have had the best of that conflict so far—An early surrender of Gen. White's entire force would be no surprise—Report in Paris that Boers captured Cecil Rhodes during a sortie from Kimberley—Gen. Buller hurrying forward reinforcements.

London, Nov. 10.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—An Amsterdam rumor says that a British regiment has been almost entirely decimated by the Free State Boers. Six hundred British soldiers are said to have been killed or wounded and three hundred horses captured.

London, Nov. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—Recent dispatches from Gen. White do not tend to allay the anxiety over his position. It is remarked as significant that while White in nearly every dispatch says the Boer bombardment continues, no mention is made of any British artillery fire in reply. For a time much was said about the effectiveness of the naval guns from the cruiser Powerful. It is feared that either the ammunition for these has given out or that the siege guns which the Boers are reported to have recently brought up have disabled the British guns.

BRITISH VICTORIES ALL FAKES

Boers have had much the best of it about Ladysmith.

London, Nov. 10.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—E. F. Knight, the war correspondent of the Morning Post, sends the following, dated at Estcourt, Monday evening: "Trustworthy information has at last been received from Ladysmith.

"Two civilians have arrived from the besieged town, having managed to pass through the Boer lines at night. They report that both the town and the camp are completely invested, and a continuous artillery duel is being carried on between the besiegers and the besieged.

"The Boer artillery is regarded as slightly superior to that of Sir George S. White's command, but the British forces are defending themselves with the greatest vigor and constantly harassing the enemy by offensive operations. Fighting is proceeding daily.

"The truth regarding recent battles at Ladysmith is known finally from official sources, and, as already cabled, the stories of frightful Boer losses in Thursday's and Friday's engagements are 'fakes,' originating in the brains of the native runners and swallowed without question by the British correspondents.

"The latest reports from the town supply nothing from which one can justifiably deduce any important British success, either on Thursday or Friday. Accounts of the engagements on Friday must therefore be taken as exaggerated."

White's Pigeon Service Improving.

Dondon, Nov. 18.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—White's pigeon service is improving. Ladysmith was heard from as late as yesterday. Gen. Buller reports that a message from White Thursday says that the bombardment of Ladysmith by heavy guns at long range continues. The casualties inflicted are few and the Boer guns do little harm.

The dispatch also says: "The Boers sent in today a number of refugees from the Transvaal under a flag of truce. The flag of truce from Ladysmith met them outside of the pickets and when the party separated the Boer guns fired on it before it reached our pickets. Major Gale, Royal engineers, was wounded today while sending a message. The entrenchments are daily growing stronger and the supply of provisions is ample."

A delayed dispatch from Estcourt, Natal, says that the Boers have now permanently occupied Colenso.

Capture of Cecil Rhodes Reported. Paris, Nov. 10.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—The Figaro says that Cecil Rhodes was captured by the Boers in one of the sorties from Kimberley.

TO CHALLENGE AGAIN

Sir Thomas Lipton Will Build a New Boat—Shamrock Was Fairly Beaten.

London, Nov. 10.—The Prince of Wales celebrated his fifty-eighth birthday quietly with his family at Sandringham, and the usual party was not given, out of respect for the dead and wounded soldiers in the Transvaal.

Sir Thomas Lipton at Home

Sir Thomas Lipton arrived at Southampton at midnight and came quietly to London yesterday morning. His reception, which was discussed when the chances of the Shamrock's victory were good, was evidently forgotten; at any rate, he was met by only a few friends. Sir Thomas was highly enthusiastic over his kind treatment in America, and says he will surely challenge again, but thinks the time too short to build a new boat to race next year, but unless some one else is anxious to enter the lists he will make another try in 1901.

He concedes the Columbia is superior in almost every way to the Shamrock, but says he thinks his boat would have made a much better showing if Fife had been able to be present at the races.

When asked regarding the sentiment in America on the Transvaal affair, he said that all representative Americans sympathize with England, and appear almost as anxious to see the British arms victorious as are the English.

IS STILL A PUZZLE

County Returns in Kentucky Show That It Was a Very Close Race.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—The Kentucky election situation is still a puzzle. It seems to be a close race right down to the last county returns. This morning complete returns from ninety-seven out of 119 counties gave Goebel a margin over Taylor of fifteen. All interest is now centered in the result of the canvass of the board today. The republicans are watching for wholesale steals and declare that blood-shed will result if crooked work is detected.

His movements were many and were delivered with lightning rapidity.

STATE SETS ASIDE HIGH SCHOOL FUNDS

ABOUT TWICE AMOUNT USED DURING LAST YEAR.

The Schools Will Get This Year $96,350.49—Prisoner Escapes by Jumping Through a Railway Car Window—Whitewater Firm Goes Into Bankruptcy—State News.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 10.—The Department of Public Instruction has completed the High school apportionment of state funds for the year. Owing to the increase in the state appropriation for the support of free High schools, made by the Bissell bill at the last session of the legislature, the schools will get about twice the amount received last year. The schools will get this year $96,350.48, and this will give the great majority, or those schools which spend more than $1,000 a year for the pay of teachers, each $494.75.

For the past twenty years the state has annually distributed among the high schools of the state, which were organized according to the state plan, $50,000, but the legislature last winter increased this to $100,000 a year. From that sum the salary and traveling expenses of the state inspector of the high school is taken, together with the cost of the distribution. The rest is divided equally among the schools, with a few exceptions. Every school spending more than $1,000 a year in salaries for the teachers will get $500. The schools spending less than $1,000 will get half of the amount they actually spend for this purpose.

Fifty-one schools come under the class that spend less than $1,000, and the amounts paid them vary from nearly $500 down to $132. Every school must be maintained for at least three months each year to get any of the money.

He was sentenced last evening to five years imprisonment in the state prison at Waupun by Judge O'Neill. He is 53 years old, about 5 feet, 8 inches in height, weighs probably 140 pounds, has a dark beard all over his face. He talks but little and in a low hoarse voice. He wore dark blue clothes and had the general appearance of a tramp.

"General MacArthur will take up the advance to Tarlac tomorrow. Wheaton reports twenty-eight Spanish prisoners secured. Three hundred insurgent recruits deserted from the enemy during the battle of San Fabian. These recruits were en route to Dagupan."

ESCAPED THROUGH A WINDOW

Landlord Snyder Loses One of His Boarders and a Board Bill.

Landlord Snyder, proprietor of a first class boarding house on South Franklin street, has been having ill luck of late with a certain set of men boarders who have suddenly left without settling unpaid board bills. His latest boarder to leave went in such a bold manner that Landlord Snyder is wondering what next will happen. The boarder in passing through the office, said that he had to go to his room first, but would soon be down and settle his bill. After being gone some time the landlord went to the room and found the door locked. He called, and the boarder at once replied that he was coming right down.

Mr. Snyder after waiting in the office a reasonable time, again went to the room. He found the door locked; he also found that his man had made good his escape via the window which opened on an adjoining roof. The case has been reported to the police.

Believed a Guaranty of Peace.

Rome, Nov. 10.—The Potsdam interview of the emperors of Russia and Germany, as well as of the foreign ministers of the two nations, is regarded in Rome as a guaranty of world-wide peace, the importance of which can hardly be exaggerated. The imperial visit is felt to have a strong bearing on the threatening attitude toward Russia recently imputed to Japan.

To Suppress American Trade.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—The Association of German Butchers has issued a pamphlet protesting against the importation and sale in Germany of American meat and indorsing the Austrian product. The association calls for a continental meat congress to take action looking to the suppression of the American meat trade in Germany.

TO DISFRANCHISE NEGROES

Maryland Democrats To Take Away Ballot From 20,000 Men.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 10.—The democrats, in view of the feeling on the race question, which so largely dominated the election, will have a bill passed by the new legislature for the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment providing for educational and property qualification in the exercise of the franchise. The adoption of such an amendment would disfranchise at least 10,000 of the 17,000 negro voters in Baltimore City and 20,000 of the 30,000 in the state. The politicians are now feeling the sentiment of the people on the matter.

A BIG PINE LAND DEAL

Congressman Stewart of Wisconsin, Purchases 60,000 Acres in Arkansas.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Congressman Alexander Stewart of Wausau, Wis., who is staying at the Auditorium Annex, closed a deal in Chicago yesterday by which he purchased 60,000 acres of yellow pine lands in Arkansas. The area purchased is known as the Brown tract, and is located at Malvern, near Hot Springs. The price paid is not given, but as the land is covered with good timber, its value reaches well up into the hundreds of thousands.

Congressman Stewart is one of the most prominent of Wisconsin lumbermen, and the purchase is indicative of the tendency of lumbermen of that state and Michigan to invest their money in the pine lands of the west and south. Louisiana and Oregon have recently been fields of investment for northern lumbermen, and much of the profits of the sawmills of the northern peninsula is now being invested in southern and western pine. With the decay of the industry in Wisconsin and Michigan, the lumber men will follow their investments to other fields.

The building of a large sawmill on the Brown tract is expected to follow its purchase by Congressman Stewart.

Greenman, John Ehle, George M. McKay and P. J. Mount. At the lakes they will endeavor to see who can shoot the most ducks. Game is said to be plentiful there these days and the local party should not want for sport.

"Come and dine with us to-morrow," said the old fellow, who had made his money and wanted to push his way into society. "Sorry," replied the elegant man, "I can't. I'm going to see 'Hamlet.' That's all right," said the hospitable old gentleman, "bring him with you."

STIRRING EVENTS IN KENTUCKY

Any Effort To Steal the State Will Surely Bring Bloodshed.

GOEBEL MEN WARNED

Governor Bradley Says Taylor is Elected and Will be Seated.

The Republican Nominee for Governor With Every County Head From, Has About 4,200 Majority, but the Democrats Are Expected to Try to Count Him Out—The Mountain Section of the State Aroused and Very Serious Trouble is Feared.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10.—The revolution against William Goebel and his election law and methods is at white heat, and until the twelfth day of December, when the next governor of Kentucky is inaugurated, the time is likely to be fraught with stirring events in this commonwealth. Ministers of the gospel, quiet business men, sedate professional men, and men who have never taken part in politics are up in arms against what they think is an attempt to override the will of the people.

It is generally conceded that the republican, W. S. Taylor, has been elected by a plurality of from 4,000 to 8,000, and that Goebel will have to falsify the returns if his election commissioners give him a certificate of election. It is certain that Goebel will insist on his election commissioners in the various counties throwing out enough republican precincts to give him the needed majority.

They Are Now Eager for Blood

Knowing this, the people of Kentucky today have been doing nothing scarcely save discuss the wrongs they have suffered, and which they anticipate at the hands of Goebel. They submitted tamely to his law, which deprived all parties save the one in power from exercising any choice in the selection of election officers, and went to the polls and tried to settle the trouble by the ballot. But this right was denied them by the Goebel election officers and they are now raging tigers, eager for blood, if they cannot get their rights. When Kentuckians get mad they are hard to control, and that they are now mad no one will deny. The venerable Judge Durham, who was comptroller of the treasury under Cleveland's first administration, says: "Kill them if they try to prevent the inauguration of Taylor."

Judge J. G. Sharpe, a captain in the confederacy, tells Governor Bradley he can get 2,000 armed men to go to Frankfort on Dec. 12, the day set for the inauguration, and see that Goebel is not seated.

The mountain section of the state is aroused also, and arrangements are being considered for taking a number of armed mountaineers to Frankfort to prevent the proposed Goebel inauguration.

Threats Against Goebel

In the western end of the state the feeling against Goebel is almost as bitter and if he should be counted in it is freely predicted that he will not live to see the inauguration day. It has been asserted hundreds of times within the past twenty-four hours that if the county election commissioners in certain counties attempt to throw out precincts they will be hanged. Hundreds of republicans and anti-Goebel democrats say they will volunteer in any army that may be gotten up to keep Goebel from being governor.

The present governor, W. O. Bradley (Rep.) says that Taylor has been elected and he will be the next governor. This is understood to mean that he will use the military power of the state to seat Taylor and if there is any protesting done Goebel will have to do it. Mass meetings have been called in Louisville and in this city to protest against Goebel's stealing.

The official returns cannot be received until the county election commissioners canvass the vote and report. This will be done today and in some counties not before Saturday, it will be several days before the exact situation is known. This morning the Republican state campaign committee claims Taylor is elected by 5,266 and the Democrats claim that Goebel is elected by 4,000.

Republicans Have a Plan.

From the talk about the headquarters the Republicans have a card up their sleeves which they will play at the proper time but they will not divulge their plans. It is rumored that if Goebel is counted in over what seems to have been a majority for Taylor, Gov. W. O. Bradley will refuse to recognize Goebel as his successor. Goebel has the machinery on his side but Bradley has the militia. It would therefore not be surprising if next December Frankfort should have the unique spectacle of two inaugurations with Goebel and General Taylor as principals.

NO COUNTY EQUAL TO ROCK COUNTY

AND CLINTON IS THE FAVOR-ITE SPOT IN IT.

So Says Mr. Vanderlyn Who Has Been Prospecting Out West and is Glad to Get Back Home Again—
Funeral of the Late Perry Hanson.

Clinton, Nov. 10.—Clinton is a favored spot. Rock county residents are fortunate. "I have seen no country equal to Rock county for general farming purposes." So says E. F. Vanderlyn, Clinton's well known stock raiser and beef producer. Mr. Vanderlyn is company with his wife returned Tuesday from an extended trip in the west, covering several thousand miles and occupying a month of time. He visited and made a study of the stock districts west of the Missouri River. "We can," he says, "compete with any state in America in producing beef, mutton and pork. Our soil and climate are admirably adapted. Our shipping facilities and nearness to market gives us a large advantage over the so called corn belt of the west. I would advise a man to run in debt for a Rock county farm rather than to buy cheap land at any price." Mr. and Mrs. Vanderlyn also visited Colorado, Wyoming and Utah, and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the scenery and business enterprise of the Rocky Mountain states.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Perry Hanson were held in the Congregational church Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m. The attendance was very large. Rev. Wm. Moore, pastor of the church, officiated. A song service was rendered by a quartette composed of Misses Maude Ames, Lillian Soper, and Messrs. S. S. Jones and J. C. Howarth. The casket was covered with floral tributes from the Congregational Sunday school, the Y. M. C. A., the High school, and friends of the family. The Sunday school class numbering thirty, of which the deceased was a member, attended the services in a body. The pall bearers were George Anderson, Henry Rustad, Ray Stewart, R. H. Thomas, Dr. Freeman of this village, and Henry Cody of Janesville. The remains were laid at rest in the Clinton cemetery. The relatives present were Mrs. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barr, Mr. and Mrs. George Barr, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Logan of Lake Geneva, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wellington of Harvard.

Walter Hanson arrived Sunday evening from Oklahoma. His coming at this time was coincident, as he did not know of his brother's death until his arrival. Miss Grace Woolston returned recently from a visit in the east. She has been absent since June.

The "baked owl" social held at the M. E. church Tuesday evening, was well attended. The "owl" proved to be cookies made in the shape of an owl. Miss Emma Crosby is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Isaac Johnson visited at Rev. F. M. Dexter's this week in New London.

Interesting exercises will be held in the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

The second meeting of the Bible class study of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next Sunday following the gospel service.

Miss Nellie Markle is home from her stay of nearly a year in Colorado. Her health has been greatly benefited during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bird were in Chicago recently.

O. R. Isham went to Chicago last week and has accepted a position in that city.

D. M. Phillips, J. Winegar, S. G. Lake and their wives attended an entertainment in Janesville Wednesday evening.

O. C. Lowe, a former Clinton boy, who has been living in Salt Lake City for a number of years, was married recently.

Mrs. Emma Able is reported as some what improved in health.

Will Neuman has taken unto himself a wife. His friends will wish him much happiness.

The "Herald" whinnily accuses us of copying its items and this week says the Gazette correspondent should get items from a more "reliable source." It is quite evident that a certain class of people are not all dead yet.

FOOTVILLE.

Footville, Wis. Nov. 10.—The continued fine weather is being appreciated by farmers and also others who have work to do. It should also remind us of the approaching winter. A new firm has sprung up, namely, Rorch & Parmlay, as tobacco dealers. Mr. August Brandenburg has taken the Footville-Penter mail route for four years. It is a disgrace that the routes are so speculated on by contractors until there is no pay for the service rendered. Uncle Sam is willing to pay honest wages. Mrs. A. S. Snyder and Mrs. W. H. Cory went to Janesville Tuesday and purchased a beautiful new carpet for the M. E. church. The ladies of the choir and church are doing finely, new pulpit furniture and choir chairs are talked of. First number of the lecture course being projected by the Ladies Aid of M. E. church will be given by the Ladies' Quartette of Beloit, Friday evening, Nov. 17. Single admission 25 cents.

UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD

Purpose of the Organization is, to Teach Brotherhood and Make It a Living Power in the Life of Humanity.

[Contributed.]

The Universal Brotherhood organization is the outcome of an attempt made years ago to awaken among men a realization of their absolute brotherhood as a fact in nature; to spiritualize, and thus raise to its true power and dignity, the growing intellectuality of the age; to liberate thought from the bounds by which materialistic science was attempting to cramp it, and thus to reanimate everywhere a fast dying hope in the promise of life and the waning energy in the search for truth.

The Universal Brotherhood has many departments of work. It touches every point of modern life, aiming to raise and ennoble every worthy human activity. It has branches, or lodges, in almost every country in the world, and its scope will constantly extend as its rapidly augmenting membership permits. It will be observed that the departments are in some degree separate, and that membership in some of them does not necessarily require membership in any other. The Universal Brotherhood, or the Brotherhood of Humanity, is "ordained and established for the benefit of the people of the earth and all creatures. According to the constitution, the principal purpose of the organization is to "teach brotherhood, demonstrate that it is a fact in nature and make it a living power in the life of humanity."

Every member has a right to believe or disbelieve in any religious system or philosophy, each being required to show that tolerance for the opinion of others which he expects for his own.

The humanitarian department is the International Brotherhood League which has seven objects as follows:

1. To help men and women to realize the nobility of their calling and their true position in life.
2. To educate children of all nations on the broadest lines of universal brotherhood, and to prepare destitute and homeless children to become workers for humanity.
3. To ameliorate the condition of unfortunate women, and assist them to a higher life.
4. To assist those who are, or have been, in prison, to establish themselves in honorable positions in life.
5. To endeavor to abolish capital punishment.
6. To bring about a better understanding between the so called savage and civilized races, by promoting a closer and more sympathetic relationship between them.
7. To relieve human suffering resulting from flood, famine, war and other calamities; and generally to extend aid, help and comfort to suffering humanity throughout the world.

To commemorate all the special activities conducted by the International Brotherhood League would occupy too much space. The following, however, will serve as examples of some of the chief lines of work, all of which have been and most of which are, in full and increasing operation; the treatment of alcohol and morphine inebriates; work among the children in the overcrowded districts of New York and elsewhere; the sheltering of homeless and friendless women; the establishment of a temporary summer home (Lotus Home) in New Jersey, for tenement children; a permanent "Lotus Home" for unclaimed children in Buffalo; the work for the newsboys and bootblacks in Toledo, Ohio; Brotherhood suppers in many of the large cities in the United States, Sweden, Holland and England, where the laws of life and conduct are simply taught on wholly unsectarian lines. In all the countries mention the League has established centers for the training of children, called "Lotus Circles," to fit them to become workers for humanity, and most of these have a large and increasing membership.

It should be noted that the officers and workers of the International Brotherhood League are unsalaried and receive no remuneration, and this as one of the most binding rules of the organization, effectually excludes those who would otherwise enter from motives of self interest.

During and since the last Spanish war this league has fed, clothed and medically treated, through its unsalaried agents, nearly ten thousand men. For this service at Montauk, the League has received recognition from the government. Mrs. Tingley went to Cuba in the winter, the government offering her free transportation for her supplies contributed by humanitarian people from all part of the United States, for the relief of the starving Cubans and sufferers from the war Janesville contributed her mite.

of the Universal Brotherhood are the Isis Conservatory of Music, located at Point Loma, San Diego, California, and the Isis League of Music and Drama. The conservatory of Music was founded for the purpose of offering a comprehensive, theoretical and practical music of education, embracing not only the ordinary methods and lines of teaching, but also unique and original features that give to music its proper place and power in the work. Music is recognized to be a part of life itself. The perfect development of the voice depends largely upon a healthy body and harmonious mental conditions. Many of the old teaching that have been found practical will be retained, and many others advanced. The Isis League of Music and Drama is composed of persons who are interested in the advancement of music and drama to their true place in the life of humanity. It is international in its membership and has branches in London and other large cities. One of its initial efforts was the production of the Greek play, "The Eumenides," of Aeschylus, which was successfully enacted by the students of the League, with appropriate archaic music and costumes, three times in New York, twice in Buffalo in November and December, 1898, and for one week at Point Loma in April of this year. The play was favorably criticised by the press, and in Buffalo the notices of the performance were given out in almost every church in the city.

How to Join

The Universal Brotherhood welcomes to membership all who truly love their fellowmen and desire the eradication of the evils caused by the barriers of race, creed, caste or color, which have so long impeded human progress; to all sincere lovers of truth and to all "who aspire to higher and better things than the mere pleasures and interests of a worldly life, and are prepared to do all in their power to make brotherhood a living power in the life of humanity, its various departments offer unlimited opportunities.

A Novel Divorce Case.
In a Missouri court recently a rather novel case came up for decision. During the civil war a certain northern soldier went into service, leaving a young wife at home. In due time the news reached him that his bride had died, and when the war ended he did not return to his old home, but settled out west. He married again, and with his second wife accumulated a large amount of property in Pratt county. Not long ago he learned that his first wife had not died, but supposing him to have been killed, had married another man. This man died, leaving her a widow. When the Pratt county man learned these facts he brought suit for divorce, and the woman in the east heard of it and came out and fought the case, asserting a claim to part of the Pratt county man's property. However, after the lawyers had made a great fight before him, the judge granted the divorce and left the Pratt county man free to marry the woman who has been living with him for many years as his wife.

Pavement Made of Skulls.
At Gwandu, in Africa, which contains between 10,000 and 15,000 inhabitants, the town, which is oval in shape, is surrounded by a palisade of tree poles, the top of every pole being crowned with a human skull. There are six gates and the approach to each gate is laid with a pavement of human skulls, the tops being the only parts that show above the ground. More than 2,000 skulls are used in the pavement leading up to each gate. The pavement is of snowy whiteness and polished to the smoothness of ivory by the daily passage of hundreds of naked feet.

NOT DANGEROUS.

What an Old Menagerie Man Says About Lions.

John B. Doris, who has had thirty years' experience with menageries, says there is no animal so safely and easily handled by a performer as the lion. Not only are they intelligent animals, but they are as easy-tempered as an overgrown dog, and when once broken in any one who is familiar with them can put them through their tricks. Doris further says that a lion roars when he feels in a particularly happy mood and that he can no more restrain himself than a dog can keep from barking. The sound of his roaring is not pleasant, and his great open jaws are not reassuring, but he means no harm. Mr. Doris recalls that one day while preparing to take the road in the old Exposition building in Cincinnati, where 300 men were engaged in making repairs, two lions escaped from their cage and made for a barrel of fat near by. In less than an instant 300 men were in rapid flight through doors and windows, but an attendant seized first one lion and then the other by the scruff of the neck and he booted them back into their cage. Doris further claims that the only animals really feared by professionals are the elephant and leopard, the first because of his uncertain temper, and the other because of his perpetually treacherous nature.

Spurious Manuscripts.
An English officer, who is now engaged in some exploring work in Central Asia, has discovered that there exists in Khotan a regular manufactory of old Asiatic manuscript relics, and so large is the output that he believes that at least 95 per cent of the manuscripts which have reached Europe from Central Asia during recent years are spurious.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Austria is the only empire in the world which has never had colonies, or even transmarine possessions.

The New York court of appeals has just decided that deposits in savings banks are not subject to taxation.

Five prisoners were taken from the jail at Carlisle, Ky., the other day to be baptised at the Christian church.

A black lioness has lately been added to the collection of animals in the Jardin des Plantes in Paris. Lions of this color are found only in the interior of the Sahara, and are scarce even there.

The colonial marriages (deceased wife's sister) bill is only a little one of thirty-five lines. It seeks to make of legal effect in England those marriages with a deceased wife's sister which are already lawful in British colonies and dependencies.

A marble block, weighing more than 100,000 pounds, has been successfully removed from a quarry in Marble Hill, Ga., and started on its way to New York. The marble is almost pure white, and measures 27 ft. 2 in. long by 4 ft. 3 in. wide, and is believed to be the largest block cut in modern times.

Jumped His Horse Over a Table.

At the age of 90 John Leech Maning has told in writing how, at the White Hart hotel, Aylesbury, he brought a horse upstairs and jumped him over the dining table. He says: "Nothing was removed from the table. In fact, the dinner was actually going on. I jumped the horse barebacked, without a bridle. The horse performed before more than forty men, who were dining after the steeplechases. It may please your readers to know that I am still living and hearty."

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of.

There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhaling remedies—in fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous."

Finally it was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done them any good, and take S. S. S., a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

MUST SEEK NEW ISSUE

The democrats must now begin to cast about for a new issue. The bugaboo of "anti-imperialism" did not scare the people at all, and the result was sweeping victories for the republican party. Last Tuesday's elections showed that the people are with the administration.

Edward Atkinson's campaign in Massachusetts cut no appreciable figure, and Carl Schurz did not influence any number of Ohio Germans.

Governor Shoy of Iowa, received the largest plurality ever given a candidate for governor in that state.

Maryland and Nebraska went against the republicans. The former state was lost because of internal strife while the latter was carried by the fusionists because of state pride and the fact that Bryan's political life or death depended upon the result.

Kentucky is claimed by both sides, but is undoubtedly republican. In 1896 Kentucky went republican by 281, but in 1898 she returned to the democratic with a plurality of 17,804. If Kentucky is lost by a plurality of less than 17,804, therefore, it will show a republican gain. If the republicans carry the state—as they undoubtedly have—the victory will be a most notable one.

Taken altogether, therefore, the results give great satisfaction to the republicans. They show that the administration is close to the people, and foretell republican rule, and the continuance of the present prosperity for at least four years from 1900.

President McKinley, as he has often said, has been "listening for the voice of the people," and their answer came to him with no uncertain sound.

SENATOR QUARLES' IDEAS

Senator Quarles speaks temperately and wisely of the results of the recent elections, saying:
"It is probably unnecessary to say that I am gratified at the result of the elections. An adverse result in Ohio would have been construed as a personal disaster for McKinley, although it might have been; in fact, attributed to local issues and jealousies. The republican politicians in Ohio are not in sweet accord, and the off year is generally chosen to test the respective strength of the factions and to pay off local scores."
"In view of these well-known facts the result in Ohio is a great triumph for the administration."

"In like manner Bryan may claim a home idolatry, which leaves him an available candidate, as he is the logical candidate of the fusion elements."

"Altogether the lessons of the returns is that the wall of the Aguinaldo Aid society has not frightened the people, who are willing to have the Philippine question decently and deliberately settled. It is a mistake to suppose that the body of the American people are hysterical or are in danger of being carried away by placards or outcries."

"Altogether the country may congratulate itself upon the outcome of the fall elections."

The senator's words have the right ring to them. He indulges in no clap-trap, but speaks to the point.
The democrats took up the cry of "anti-imperialism" simply because they thought it would embarrass the administration. They did not wait to analyze the situation or to weigh the facts. They now find that the cry was raised in vain, and the issue has been quietly laid to rest alongside the corpses of free trade and free silver.

Business is looking up in the south these days. For instance, a cotton factory to cost $200,000 is being built at Athens, Georgia. A big mill for handling sea island cotton is also being built at Charleston, S. O.

If we turn back to the facts in the case, we will probably find that Col. Ingersoll said that he would "believe that there was a hell when Kentucky went republican—without any shooting."

And even in the matter of getting married Admiral Dewey had to spring a surprise on us.

Professor Fryer of the University of California is collecting funds for a free hospital for Chinamen in San Francisco. It is expected that the Highbinders will keep it full.

The London newspapers all construe the elections in the United States to be a strong endorsement of the president and his policy.

Franchises seem to be worth something these days. A Richmond, Va., firm offers $50,000 for the right to operate a street car system.

A KNITTED BABY JACKET.

An Easily Worked and Exceedingly Pretty Design.

For a simple and pretty baby jacket provide three ounces of fingering or three ply wool and five bone needles, No. 11 or 12. For the back, cast on 70 stitches. First row, purl 7, knit 3 and repeat to end of row. Second row, knit the stitches that have been purled and purl those that have been knitted in the first row. Third row same as first. Fourth row, purl. Fifth row, purl 2, knit 3 (which makes that pattern come right; 3 plain stitches must be in the middle of the 7 purl stitches), *purl 7, knit 3, repeat from * and end with 5 purl. Sixth row, as second—i. e., purl those that have been knitted and knit those that have been purled in the fifth row. Seventh row, as fifth row. Eighth row, purl. This completes the pattern.

Repeat these 8 rows 7 times more, and after the last seventh row cast on 35 stitches at the end of the needle. Purl these and the 70 of the back as eighth row and cast on at the end another 35 stitches. These extra stitches at each end form the sleeves. On these 140 stitches knit the pattern as above 4 times. Then knit in pattern 58 stitches and cast off 24, leaving 58 on the needle. Slip the first 58 stitches on to a spare needle or a piece of wool, and on the other 58 work in pattern to end of row and back again. At the neck end cast on 12 stitches, 70 in all on this needle. Knit the pattern 4 times. In the last purl row cast off 35 stitches to complete the sleeve. On the remaining 35 knit the pattern 9 times. Cast off. This finishes one front.

Resume at the 58 stitches left on the spare needle, and, with the wrong side of the work toward you, work, beginning at the neck end thus: Knit 3, purl 8*, knit 7, purl 3; repeat from *, and with knit 2. In the next row purl over the knitted stitches and knit over the purl ones; at the neck end cast on 12 stitches (70 now on this needle). Knit in pattern 4 times, and at the last purl row begin by casting off 35 stitches, which completes the second sleeve. On the remaining 35 stitches knit the pattern 8 times and cast off. This finishes the second front. Sew up the side seams on the wrong side of the work. On the end of each sleeve pick up the stitches and knit 20 rows (10 ridges) plain to form a band. Sew up the sleeves on the wrong side.

Pick up the stitches round the neck and knit two rows and a row of holes thus: *Knit 1, thread forward, knit 2 together, repeat from * to end. Leave the stitches forming the neck on one needle. With a second needle pick up and knit the stitches down one side of the front, with a third pick up and knit these along the bottom of the jacket, and with a fourth those up the other side of the front. Knit across the collar with the fifth needle. Having the stitches divided thus on to four needles and with the right side of the work toward you, purl with the fifth needle all the way round. First round of edge, knit 1, thread forward, knit plain to within 1 stitch of the end, thread forward and knit that stitch. Do this at the beginning and end of each of the three remaining needles. Second round, purl. Repeat these two rounds alternately until there are 10 ridges. Cast off. Run a ribbon through the row of holes at the neck.

Cheese Potato Puffs.

Add to half a pint of cold mashed potatoes one egg well beaten and a tablespoonful of melted butter. Beat the mixture until it is very light. Then add plenty of seasoning, salt and pepper and two spoonfuls of grated cheese for this amount of potato. Again beat light and turn the mixture into buttered tins and bake in a brisk oven. This is a good way of using a small quantity of mashed potatoes for luncheon without meat.

ENTERS CITY VIA EASTERN AVENUE

THIRD SURVEY OF MILWAUKEE ROAD BRANCH.

According to the Way the Matter Now Rests the New Line will Come Along Eastern Avenue—Crosses Emerald Grove Road Three Times—Station at the Grove.

The third survey of the new branch of the Milwaukee road from Libertyville, Ill., to Janesville, passes about one hundred rods north of Emerald Grove, and continues in an easterly direction and crosses the Emerald Grove road near the home of John Little; then passes through the farms of George Turk, William Allen, Messrs. Joiner and Evenson and crosses the road again in front of A. G. Proctor's home.

Continuing along the sand hills of the Proctor and Wheeler farms to the McClelland farm it crosses the road for the third time and follows the south side of Eastern avenue for about a mile, entering the city somewhere near the Monterey marsh.

If the road is built on the last survey it will make bad work on the Emerald Grove road, which it crosses three times in eight miles. This will make it bad for teaming on one of the best roads leading into this city. It is probable that a station will be built at Emerald Grove.

Struck by 800 Pounds.

Chicago Record: Peter McGann, a stevedore aboard the steamer A. McVittie, which is unloading at the Western cold storage warehouse docks, was struck by an 800-pound bale of dry goods, which fell into the hold of the steamer, and survives. The McVittie carried an assorted cargo, and for two days has been unloading at the storage warehouse. McGann was working with several men in the hold of the boat. They placed the hooks upon the bale and signaled the engineer to hoist it. As the bale reached the deck level the hooks slipped and the bale fell 18 feet into the hold, landing squarely on McGann's head. He suffered only a scalp wound and a sprained shoulder. He was taken to the Alexian Brothers' hospital.

How to Paper Whitewashed Walls.

It is difficult to make paper stick to walls that have been made smooth by frequent whitewashing. The smooth finish may be scraped off or the surface may be changed with a coat of paste. If you decide to use the paste make it in the following manner: Put one pint of flour in a saucepan and beat into it one quart of cold water. When smooth add two quarts of boiling water, stirring all the time. Let this boil up once, then strain and cool. Brush this paste over the walls and allow it to dry. When you are ready to paper wet the walls, spread the paste on the paper and hang it in the usual manner.

Xenia's First Street Car.

Xenia (Ohio) Gazette: The first street cars ever seen in operation in this city passed along Detroit street recently, and after a little delay caused by the track having filled up, the little car started bravely off and was soon sailing merrily along out in the direction of the fair grounds. The test proved very successful, and after a few trips to get things in running order the cars will be making schedule trips and carrying passengers to and from the fair grounds. The start of the car was witnessed by quite a crowd of people scattered along Detroit street.

Newfoundland Gun Men.

The Newfoundland pioneer was a curious mixture of simplicity and hardihood. Only fifteen years ago, before the introduction of magistrates on the west coast, "shotgun law" was the order of the day. If one offended another the aggrieved party threatened to shoot the aggressor on sight. Although every man had his own gun, and the threatened man had equal chances in a fight, he would hide in his hut and go in fear of his life for many days, never thinking that he might settle the affair by a counter threat.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children as well as adults can drink it with great benefit; costs about 1/4 as much as coffee. 15 and 25

WRECK VICTIMS SUE FOR DAMAGES

THREE PLAINTIFFS RESIDE IN JANESVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and Mrs. Caroline Downing of No. 4 Linn Street are the interested ones—No Special Amount Stated as Yet—Many Witnesses Will be Sworn.

James W. Scott and Mrs. Ida H. Scott and Mrs. Caroline A. Downing, residing at No. 4 Linn street, have commenced a suit for damages against the Chicago & Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad companies, for injuries alleged to have been received in a wreck.

The wreck in question took place three miles north of this city at a point where both roads cross and which is known as the Mississippi crossing. On the evening of Saturday, May 27, 1899 a south bound Milwaukee road freight crashed into a north bound Northwestern passenger. The freight engine ran into the baggage car of the passenger just as the crossing was being made.

Mrs. Scott and her mother, Mrs. Downing were seated in the rear car and were both thrown from their seats and it is alleged received injuries that have resulted in their both being confined to their beds the greater portion of the time since the accident.

Mrs. Scott alleges that her eye sight was injured and that she was badly bruised about the spine and face.

Mrs. Downing, who is seventy-one years of age alleges that she received injuries that came near proving fatal. Her shoulder, she alleges, was badly injured.

Mr. Scott was not on the train at the time but brings suit for the recovery of a heavy expense that he has been under as the result of the accident. The plaintiffs are well known and highly esteemed residents of Janesville. Mr. Scott is employed at the drug store of H. E. Roush & Company.

At the time of the collision, the passenger train was in charge of Conductor James York, of this city. Engineer Otto Schickler of Janesville, was on the freight. Fethers, Jeffries & Mount have been engaged to represent the plaintiff in the coming action. Jackson and Jackson will appear for the Milwaukee road and Fish, Cary, Upham and Black of Milwaukee, will represent the Northwestern road.

EDGERTON DEED RECORDED

Was Executed More Than Thirty Years Ago Conveying Resident Property.

Register of Deeds O. D. Rowe received a deed for record last week that was executed more than thirty years ago, conveying a piece of Edgerton property by Randolph Brown to S. L. Lord, and forming a part of the Lord homestead. The property in question was in an early day a nursery in which was started most of the shade trees that now adorn the streets of Edgerton.

What a Mogul Can Do.

That was a remarkable demonstration of what a Mogul can do, that occurred on the New York Central the other day, when engine No. 948, one of the new Moguls, hauled out train No. 11, the Southwestern Limited, made up of two mail cars, five passenger coaches and nine Wagner cars, sixteen cars in all. The total weight of the train was 1,892,000 pounds, or 816 tons, and the length of the train, including the engine was 1,212 feet, or nearly a quarter of a mile. This engine made the running time of the train between New York and Albany, 143 miles, in three hours and fifteen minutes.

There is no railroad in the world which has a better roadbed, more skillful engineers, or better equipment, backed by loyal men always alert for the safety of their passengers, than the New York Central and Hudson River railroad. What road can match its corps of men from President Callaway down the long line of employees, to the humble and faithful trackmen who watch their sections of rails through the long hours of the night and day, in order to safeguard the lives of the travelers on trains whirling by their humble shanties, many of which nestle closely to the rails under their guardianship. Editorial from the Albany Times-Union.

BAINES PURCHASES ABOUT STOUGHTON

SECURES THREE HUNDRED CASES OF TOBACCO.

Farmers Are Asking More Money For Their Goods These Days—Too Many Buyers in the Field Given as the Cause—Other Deals of a Large Nature.

There seems to be a determined effort to gather in the last remnants of the '98 crop remaining with the growers, which some assert is now reduced below 1,000 cases. F. S. Baines secured about 300 cases this week about Stoughton, says the Wisconsin Tobacco Leaf.

Packers are disposing of some old goods, the largest transaction of the week being 600 cases of '98 sold by McNair, Broadhead packer to H. W. Child, Samuel Grundy sold 110 cases and G. H. Rumrill 90 cases to F. S. Baines.

The shipments out of storage reach 28 car loads, 1,135 cases to all points for the week from this station. Since last report less than 200 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York.

The Farm and Home says: The farmers are firm in their holding prices and calmly await another mad rush by the agents of the American Tobacco Company or some other large firm as has been done twice this fall, in each instance the buyer exceeded the expectations of the farmers. Owing to the firmness of the farmers it is not probable that much buying will be done for some time. Around the warehouse a fairly healthy business is reported. B. J. Merrill sold 100 cases '98; Joseph Grundy sold about 100 cases of '97 and '98; G. H. Rumrill, about 40 cases sold.

PETERSEN CHILD FIRST CASE REPORTED.

Certain Local Physicians Are Said to Be Holding Back Information That Should Be in the Hands of the City Health Officer—Dr. Woods Reports First Case.

Diphtheria has made its appearance in Janesville.

City Health Officer Dr. George W. Field has quarantined the Petersen home in the Spring Brook addition the case having been reported by Dr. E. F. Woods. The patient is a boy and it is said his present condition is not of such a serious nature as to cause alarm. But it is alleged that there are other cases in Janesville that have not been reported.

Dr. Field said today: "From what I can learn I have an idea that there are cases of diphtheria in the city that have not been reported. These cases may be mild ones but they should be looked after in time."

The city of Beloit is now much excited over numerous diphtheria cases.

SALISBURY IN DEFIANT MOOD.

"Great Britain Would Not Accept Interference."

SPEECH ON THE TRANSVAAL.

At the Annual Lord Mayor's Banquet at London the British Premier, Mr. Salisbury, made the following significant statement:—

"We desire equal rights for all men and security for our fellow-subjects and our empire. The hour for asking by what means these results can be obtained is not yet come."

"It has been suggested that the other powers will interfere with this country. Don't let any man think it is in that fashion the conflict will be concluded. We shall have to carry it through ourselves, and the interference of anybody else will have no effect upon it. We would not accept that interference."

"Whenever we are victorious we shall consult the vast interests committed to our care. I do not doubt that we shall so arrange that the issues of this conflict will confer good government upon the area where it rages."

GEN. WHITE LOST BUT FEW.

Messenger from Ladysmith Says Accounts of Battle Were Exaggerated. Estcourt, Natal, Nov. 8, via London, Nov. 10.—An armored train patrolling the railroad in the direction of Colenso met a Kaffir runner bringing dispatches from Ladysmith.

The runner said the reports of the last battle near Ladysmith had been exaggerated. The British loss was eight killed and twenty wounded, including Capt. Knapp.

The train was making for some point where telegraphing with Ladysmith could be carried on. There was no sign of the Boers between Colenso and Estcourt.

The Kaffir runner told the correspondent that he had been stopped and searched by the Boers, but, as they failed to find the dispatches in his possession, he was allowed to come through.

Serious action is looked for in the northern districts of Cape Colony. Men and guns are being pushed forward with all possible speed, and a determined attack all along the line is thought imminent. Mafeking, Kimberley, the outposts along the Orange river, and perhaps even De Aar Junction, must bear the brunt of the attack. All are weaker in artillery than the forces that will attack them, and the British artillery, despite the prevalent opinion, seems to be none the better handled.

Nevertheless, the British at Mafeking and Kimberley have held their own thus far, and there are some grounds for hope that they may continue to offer successful resistance until Gen. Buller is able to move to their relief.

To Relieve Gen. White.

London, Nov. 10.—A dispatch from Durban, dated Nov. 6, states that the warships Thetis and Terrible have arrived there. They will probably land guns, which will be sent to Pietermaritzburg and Estcourt. An attempt will be made to send a battalion with guns to Colenso, and even as far north as Ladysmith.

A dispatch from Cape Town says the transport Roslyn Castle has been ordered to go to Durban, instead of landing her troops at Cape Town, as originally intended. She carries Gen. Hildyard, the commander of the Second brigade, and about 1,000 of the Yorkshire regiment, in addition to a large quantity of stores. The change of her destination is taken to mean that the Second brigade is going to relieve Gen. White at Ladysmith. Four transports which left England Oct. 19, conveying the remainder of this brigade, are about due at Cape Town.

The most favorable view taken in regard to the meagerness of the news from Ladysmith is that pigeons are not to be relied on owing to their liability to be shot or go astray. But where criticism is tinged with pessimism there is an unmistakable disposition to regard the silence as ominous. This feeling has been increased by the reaction resulting from a realization that the natives have gulled the correspondents with reference to Boer defeats.

The Boers, if they ever entertained the idea of a real invasion of Cape Colony, have probably now abandoned it, and will devote their whole energies to reducing Ladysmith. They have only about a week in which to do this. The fact that they are rather inactive indicates that they are waiting for something which they feel sure will justify their delay. The latest Estcourt dispatches seem to hint that the garrison is about to retire further southward.

Orders have been received at Woolwich and Devonport for the mobilization of a siege train, which, it is supposed, is intended for the purpose of shelling Pretoria. The force manning it will approximate to the strength of eight batteries, and will consist of 2,500 officers and 11,000 non-commissioned officers and men. Its armament will be thirty Howitzers, fourteen six-inch guns, eight five-inch guns and eight four-inch guns, the whole train weighing more than 3,000 tons.

This will be the first employment of a modernized siege train by any European army, and the progress of the reduction of the forts by Lyddite shell fire, a preliminary to storming by infantry, will be watched with interest and curiosity by all professional soldiers.

Kimberley Is Under Fire.

London, Nov. 10.—An official dispatch, issued at the war office, says that a slight bombardment of Kimberley has commenced. This is the first notification that such a step was taking place. The general in command gives no details. The Boer force outside of Kimberley does not exceed 6,000, and they have never shown any special aggressiveness.

First Reinforcements Arrive.

London, Nov. 10.—The British forces in Africa have received the welcome reinforcement of upward of 1,000 men. The Roslyn Castle was immediately ordered to Durban and will take a little under three days in getting to its destination. The men should be ashore on the 12th or 13th.

British Preparing to Move.

Estcourt, Natal, Nov. 6.—Signs are abundantly manifest that a movement is contemplated by the British troops here, but their destination is kept a profound secret.

WANTS EQUITY TO FIX WAGES.

Kansas City Union Issues an Address Affecting Capital and Labor.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10.—The supreme council of the American Equal Wage union, recently incorporated under the laws of Missouri, with headquarters in Kansas City, has issued an address to the wage-workers of the United States. The union's main object is to secure justice for women who work for wages, to protect children from unnecessary industrial servitude, to discourage strikes and accomplish its work by means of education. The address contains the following:—

"The current theory of the relations of capital and labor must give place to one that will secure the laborer fair, if not full, compensation for his toil. And the methods of labor and capital, with regard to the enforcement of their respective rights and demands, must be reformed and made to fit higher ideals and a nobler standard of justice and civilization. The unnatural and indefensible conflict between labor and capital must cease. Labor should know and capital should learn that the highest mission of mankind is to make the world happy."

Gen. Brooke Must Go.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The cabinet is soon to consider the question of establishing a civil government in Cuba. Considerable pressure is being brought to bear on the administration to take this step. The president's program contemplates the retirement of Gen. Brooke from the military governorship and the substitution of a civil government with Gen. Leonard Wood at its head. On the coming 1st of January, if the president can carry out the plans he has now in mind, the existing military government in the island will give way to a civil government, and Cuba will have taken her first long stride on the road toward independence.

Indians Threaten Trouble.

Vernal, Utah, Nov. 10.—An Indian was shot and killed on the reservation at Redder's sheep herd by "Jim" Olsen, a herder. The Indian was trying to drive the herder out, and attacked him with an ax. About fifteen herders now on the reservation are thought to be in great danger, and the owners of the sheep are hurrying to the scene of trouble, which is on the upper end of the reservation. Troops are also on the way to the scene of the trouble.

Mine Operators Will Appeal.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The executive committee of the Illinois Coal Operators' association held a secret meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to appeal to the United States Supreme court from the decision made recently by the Illinois Supreme court in the case of the state against the Chicago, Wilmington and Vermilion company. This decision compels the operators to pay the fees of the state mine inspectors.

APPROVES SAMOAN AGREEMENT

German Colonial Council Sends Congratulations to the Emperor.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—The colonial council, at a meeting today, heartily approved the Samoan agreement. Prince von Wied declared that thanks were due firstly to the emperor and called for three cheers for his majesty. A telegram was dispatched to the emperor expressing the council's gratification at the ending of the Samoan dispute—"To the imperishable glory of the emperor and the honor of Germany."

London, Nov. 10.—The afternoon papers here express satisfaction at the Samoan settlement. They are especially gratified at the evidence of the continued good understanding between the three nations.

The acquisition of Tutuila is regarded as setting the seal on the expansionist policy of the United States, and a great development of the American navy is anticipated and welcomed.

Mrs. Bradish, of Detroit, Wrote Mrs. Pinkham and Tells the Result.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 8,310]

"About two years ago I began to run down and soon became almost a wreck. I lost my appetite and began to lose flesh; my blood was impoverished and I had to leave my store."

"The doctors gave me a little tonic, but I steadily grew worse and consulted another doctor. He helped me in some ways, but my headaches continued, and I began to have night sweats and my rest was so disturbed that I would have hysteria and would cry and worry over business matters and my poor health."

"Finally, husband took me South, but with no benefit. This was a year ago; no one can ever know what a winter of misery I spent. Would blot after eating and was troubled with palpitation of heart and whites. Having read by happy chance of your medicine, I bought it and wrote for your advice, and before having finished the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the hysterics nearly stopped and I slept soundly."

"I used seven or eight bottles with such benefit that I am as healthy as I can ever remember of being. I shall never cease to sound your praises."—Mrs. E. M. BRADISH, 179 Dix Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Pinkham's advice is at the free disposal of every ailing woman who wishes help. Her address is Lynn, Mass. Every case is sacredly confidential.

TORPEDOES WITHOUT WIRE.

Deadly Explosives Are Steered by Means of Electric Wave.

From the London Mail: Contemporaneous with the sitting of the peace conference comes the announcement of a new invention by which torpedoes are to be rendered more deadly in modern warfare than heretofore. The invention, due to Walter Jamieson and John Trotter, consists in utilizing the "etherial" or "Hertzian" waves, which are the basis of wireless telegraphy, as a means of steering and controlling torpedoes on their deadly missions. The apparatus is made in several forms, which differ principally in the means by which the current induced by the waves is applied to the steering mechanism. The best arrangement consists of a coil or iron wire, or "solenoid," that becomes magnetic on receiving the etherial waves, and is thus rendered capable of sucking into itself a magnet, the motion of which brings about any required change in the steering gear of the torpedo. The latter is fitted with two rods, which project above the water and serve as "receivers"—that is, means of collecting the waves. Each of the rods is in connection with a coil of the type described, one on the right of the torpedo and one on the left, and, according as the right-hand or the left-hand rod absorbs the waves, so the torpedo is guided to the right or left. The means adopted in using the apparatus is as follows: Suppose that the torpedo is fired in the usual manner and that its course is seen to swerve from its proper path. From the torpedo-boat electric waves are immediately dispatched by the processes used in wireless telegraphy, in such a manner that they only affect either the right-hand or left-hand coil controlling the helm, which is thus turned in any required direction, and the original course of the torpedo reproduced. When this is accomplished the electric waves are stopped and the helm flies back to the midship position. Large models of the apparatus have been experimented with, and it is said that perfect success has been obtained under all possible conditions. Since the new method of guiding torpedoes is greatly superior to the old, which made use of electric wires, it is evident that the new invention will be an important factor in future naval warfare.

procurable, the import of foreign goods is practically stopped. An ingenious innovation recently started by the Tokyo Card and Pasteboard company, the largest in its line in Japan, has resulted in markedly facilitating the development of the industry. It consists in making thick tarred pasteboards as substitutes for shingles for ordinary roofing. The paper shingles are now in active demand, being about 50 per cent cheaper and far more easily managed than ordinary shingles, hence considerably economizing the labor of mechanics. The shingles do not differ much in point of being proof against fire and water compared with the ordinary article. This does not seem to be an exaggeration, judging from the fact that the paper shingles have been adopted in subrobing the new Tokyo chamber of commerce and the imperial Tokyo university buildings.

Breeding Places of the Osprey.

There is a decided element of romance in the history of the osprey, the shooting of which by a gamekeeper in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, has been made the subject of an interrogation to the lord advocate in the house of commons. At the present time the bird is believed to have only two breeding places in Scotland, one in the Gramplains, on the shores of Lake Morlich, and the other in the Orkneys. These places have, of course, been known to naturalists for some time past, and those who climb the Cairngorm will not easily forget the sight afforded by this majestic bird sailing home to its nest in the dusk of the evening. On one occasion a few years ago the nest was alleged to have been robbed, and, as a consequence, only one bird returned the following year. When the breeding season again came round, and confidence was partly restored, the birds returned, but selected as their habitat a solitary glen even farther up in the very heart of the Cairngorm, not far from A'an.
